Mothers Day Rosary

Our Sunday School kids are learning about the Rosary. Join us on Mothers Day (May 14th) at 9:00 am for an outdoor rosary walk followed by some tasty Mothers Day goodies. You don't have to be registered in Sunday school to join us. If you are a mom, have a mom or just love Jesus' mom, please come!

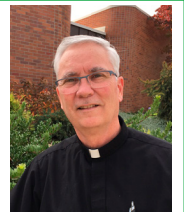

SUMMER IS FOR SERVICE AND FITNESS

Students currently in 5th grade through 8th grade are invited to take part in a wonderful summer program sponsored by Cataldo School, which will focus on service opportunities, fitness, and mini-workshops that help students plan for their future. The program will start the week of June 20th and end the last week of July. Tuesdays and Thursdays are service days and start at 9:00 and end at noon. Wednesdays are our fitness days and will meet at the same time as service. The combination of these two programs will help students stay active and fit and learn about the different ways students can help other people and do God's work. The leaders are Janet Maucione and Mitch Weller. It is open to all students, no matter what school they attend.

The limit of students each day is 15 so get your name in first so you have first opportunity to sign up. The cost is $20 per week, no matter how many days the student participates. Drivers are needed. If you are interested, please email Janet at janetmaucione@cataldo.org for more information.

A Word from Father...

Dear Friends,

In just a couple of weeks two of the most well-known people on Planet Earth are going to meet for the first time. One wears outsize red power ties and rules over the most economically and militarily powerful nation in the world; the other wears white from head to toe (almost) and rules over the smallest nation in the world with no army and little influence over how things financial work in this world. The one with the red tie is known for crowing loudly about his business prowess and became famous for saying, "You're FIRED!"; the other in white rides around in a Ford Focus, hangs around with the poor and ill as much as he can, and proclaims that they are the world's most precious human beings. One builds walls (or wants to) and the other breaks them down (as best he can).

You'd have to be deaf and blind not to know who both these men are: one is the Commander-in-Chief of the United States, Donald Trump, the other is the Bishop of Rome and Father-in-Chief of the Roman Catholic family.

Who wouldn't want to be a fly on the Vatican wall when they finally have an opportunity to meet, greet, and look each other in the eye! It will be a brief visit, according to reports...no more than a half hour. I wonder what they will say to one another beyond the pleasantries? With no idea myself what might transpire, this is what I imagine:

DT: "Tremendous to meet you, Pope! Fantastic!"

PF: "Better to meet your poor."

DT: Oh, I LOVE the poor and the poor LOVE me, because I am doing FANTASTIC things for them!"

PF: "Let them do something for you: listen to just one poor person's life story. Really listen."

DT: Wonderful. Fantastic. Beautiful. I'll have Jered set it up.

PF: No, let me set it up. Right now. Come, Mr. President, I have an fellow from Syria who crossed the Mediterranean just last week right outside the door...

DT: Gotta go! Great things to do! Next time! Magnificent guy, this Pope! My kind of Pope! Bye, now!

PF: Sigh...

Fr. Kevin

Cataldo Governance

The new governance structure of Cataldo School was recently set in place at the request of Bishop Daly. The Board of Governors now consists of the three parish pastors. A new Advisory Committee, much like a parish Pastoral Council, is now being formed. If you would like to recommend to serve on this new committee representing Sacred Heart or , please let Father Kevin know soon.
