Father Kevin with Dennis Felgenhauer of the Finance Council.

Parish staff and members of the Pastoral and Finance Councils had the opportunity to meet informally with Sacred Heart’s new pastor, Msgr. Kevin Codd on June 19. By the way, his preferred form of address is ‘Father Kevin.’ Although a native son of Spokane, this is the first time he has been assigned to a parish in the city. He looks forward to the opportunity to be closer to his family. Father Kevin has already served at two other “Sacred Hearts” of this Diocese in Brewster and Othello. He was also pastor of St. Patrick in Walla Walla and rector of the American College in Louvain, Belgium, where he and Father Mark completed their theological formation. Most recently, he was pastor of St. Thomas More Catholic Student Center at WSU, and maybe we will enjoy the presence of some of his “CatholicCougs” at his new parish! Father Kevin has also served in our mission in Guatemala, walked the Way of St. James (El Camino) and wrote a book about it: To the Field of Stars. But let’s let Father Kevin tell us his story as he learns our story. Oh yes, we look forward to meeting Erasmus, his Yorkie.

Farewell Luncheon

In August of 2014 the parish treated me to a celebration of my 40th anniversary of my ordination (August 3, 1974) That was also the occasion, as best I can recall, of letting you know that in June of 2015 I would complete 12 years of service as Sacred Heart’s pastor.

A pastor’s term of office is six years, and priests rarely stay in a parish more than two terms. I have been abundantly blessed by these 12 years, but the time has come for me and for you for a change in pastoral leadership. As of July 1, I will be “retired” or “enjoying senior status.” However, I will continue in my position as Judicial Vicar, and will assist at parishes as needs arise. There will be more leisure time and I will need to find creative and enjoyable ways to use that time. Nonetheless, I cannot envision a life devoid of priestly ministry. I thank you and I thank Our Lord for blessings received and for those still to come. Let us open our hearts in welcome to Father Kevin, who will be a blessing to us, and we to him.

Please join me at the luncheon after the 10:00 Mass June 28. Members of my family will be with us. Even though I will no longer minister as pastor of Sacred Heart, you have not seen the last of me!

—Father Mark

The Guatemala Commission met at Sacred Heart’s hall on June 19. The Commission, of which Mike Phalen is a member, puts into action the covenant between Spokane and the Diocese of Sololá.
