Today's readings are about being chosen and sent. The prophet Amos was chosen by the Lord and sent to use his talents for the people of God. The Gospel recounts the story of the sending of the twelve. In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that we, too, are chosen. For what have I been chosen? To whom have I been sent?

Dear Parishioners of Sacred Heart,

Grace and peace to you in our Lord Jesus Christ!

Let me begin with a word of gratitude for the warm welcome you shared with me this past weekend. It is just wonderful to be received into a parish family with such kindness and openness and I very much look forward to serving you, collaborating with the parish's councils and committees, and offering whatever leadership, learning, and guidance my talents, education, and experience might afford.

The spirit of welcome that you have already extended to me is one of the most important things a parish family has on offer; Christian hospitality is of paramount value to sharing the gospel of Jesus to the wider community. I trust that as you have blessed me, you bless all who come to Sacred Heart, especially the stranger and newcomer.

I certainly look forward to meeting all of you and coming to know you well. When it comes to remembering names, sometimes I get it on the first meeting and have it firmly in my mind thereafter, and inexplicably, other times I need to keep asking and asking and asking. Please be patient with me if I don't recall your name and have to ask yet again.

Though a native of Spokane, I have not ministered in the city since 1983 and having grown up on the north side of town, I do not know well the South Hill so this is very much a new beginning and a new place for me. I'll be learning the geography of its winding boulevards and charming side streets in the months to come. I am happy to be back in Spokane, closer to my family than I have been in many years. As some of you know, I will be residing in my parents' small home near St. Charles Church in the Shadle neighborhood, which I inherited after my mother died some years ago. The commute is only about twenty minutes across town so I will be very accessible to you.

Finally, I wish to extend a word of thanks to Father Mark for his twelve years of service to you and for all he has done in the past weeks to make the transition to a new pastor so smooth. He has blessed you abundantly over the years and I know you are deeply grateful; I am happy he remains very much a part of our parish family!

Please keep me in your prayers as I will you!
In Christ Jesus,

Father Kevin

P.S. By the way, my day-off each week will be Monday.

A Note of Thanks

Thank you, Sacred Heart, for the lovely farewell luncheon on June 28, and your gracious words, cards and gifts in appreciation of my service to our parish. My brothers, Tom and Jim and their spouses felt most welcome. Thank you for the open heart of Sacred Heart. On most weekends I am likely to assist in other parishes, but here is where I live, and Sacred Heart remains my family of faith.

The Franciscan Sisters of Perpetual Adoration invite you to a celebratory Mass and reception on Friday, July 24, 2015 at 7 p.m. at St. Augustine Parish. The sisters first came to the Spokane Diocese in 1915, at the request of Most Reverend August Francis Schinner, the first bishop of the diocese. The sisters came, from La Crosse, Wisconsin, to staff St. Xavier and St. Augustine schools, as well as St. John's academy in Colfax. In 1929, they established and staffed Marycliff High School for girls. Sisters have served in a variety of ministries and continue their presence as counselors, religious educators, spiritual directors and parish and youth ministers. We are exceedingly proud of their ministries in Spokane. For this momentous milestone—100 years of caring presence—we'll pray, honor and reminisce. Join us!
