Invitation to Contemplative Prayer

This past week the Church celebrated the canonization of St. Mother Theresa. St. Theresa started her day with contemplative prayer. From that prayer she received the strength to do the work of mercy to all those around her. She gave all she had to those she did not even know because God's presence lived in her in a very powerful way. All of us who follow Jesus desire to be more loving and caring, more present to the moment so that we can be aware of God's work in the world and in us. This knowing requires silence and attention. Contemplative prayer opens the heart to received God's love in a very special way. Group contemplation provides support and encouragement as we follow this practice. You are invited to join a special group of people who together meet on Mondays at 11:00 a.m. in the Upper Room of the Parish Offices. The prayer begins with lectio (scripture and reflection) followed by 20 minutes of silence. Instruction is given to newcomers. We welcome anyone wanting a deeper spiritual walk to join us. You have everything to gain in this prayer of receptivity. "Come and see," as Jesus said to his disciples. Your life will never be the same.

A Word from Father...

Dear Friends,
You have now met Msgr. Denis Carlin!

I trust that your first impressions from his being with us at our weekend Masses are all positive ones and that you are looking forward to the coming week of prayer, praise, and inspired preaching!

I know well how busy our lives are and how much of a sacrifice it is to clear a week of evenings from our calendars, especially in these busy days of September, but I also know how great a benefit we will all have if we do set aside these precious hours for our personal spiritual growth AND the growth of our spiritual family in Christ.

Anyone who offers professional services, from doctors to therapists, are required to take every year a certain number of on-going education classes to keep their licenses to practice current nowadays; it is just part of staying well-educated in their fields and offering the best service possible to their clients and patients. In our lives of faith, we need to do the same, though in a slightly different way. We can't be satisfied with what we learned in third grade religion class if we are to live our faith in today's complicated and challenging world. Our parish mission with Msgr. Carlin offers a spectacular opportunity to upgrade our "license" to practice the faith and serve others as Christ would have us serve them by immersing ourselves in the mysteries of God's always generous and ever gracious MERCY. On Thursday we will have the opportunity to experience the Sacrament of Mercy and Reconciliation as an integral part of our Mission week.

Please, please, PLEASE, do yourself and all of us the great favor of joining in praise, prayer, and profound reflection on our shared faith TONIGHT and every night this week!

See you all at 7:00 pm!!!

Fr. Kevin
