SACRED HEART PARISH

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time
October 23, 2016

All Saints & All Souls

The Feasts of All Saints (a Holy Day) and All Souls will be commemorated with Mass on All Saints (Nov 1st) at 7:30 am and 5:30 pm, and Mass for All Souls (Nov 2nd) only at 7:30 am. As in years past, you are invited to record the names of your own family members and dear friends who have died in the special binder located in the church vestibule. We will also remember our own parishioners who have died during the past year on special banners on either side of the sanctuary.

Catholic and Lutheran Ecumenical Celebration

You are invited to attend a significant ecumenical event on Saturday October 29, 2016, at 7:00 pm at Central Lutheran Church in Spokane. The choir from the St. Mary Magdalene Church (The Madeleine) of the Roman Catholic Archdiocese of Portland will join the choir from Central Lutheran Church, Spokane, in presenting a combined commemoration of the 500th anniversary of the protestant reformation.

We offer this concert in the spirit of Pope Francis when he stated: Differences still remain in doctrine and in practice. This must not discourage us, but instead spur us along our journey towards ever greater unity... and Rev. Martin Junge the General Secretary of the Lutheran World Federation stated: "By working towards reconciliation between Lutherans and Catholics, we are working towards justice, peace and reconciliation..."

Please come celebrate our common faith through the gift of music as the audience members join together singing Christian hymns, listening to combined choral anthems and experience a Spokane premiere of a beautiful Jazz Requiem written by Michael Kissinger. Maria Manzo of Portland and Paul Brueggemeier of Spokane will be directing the choirs.

Our Parish Sacrificial Offerings Last Weekend

Envelope & Plate Offering: $6,191.00
Outreach: $ 30.00

In order to meet our 2015-16 budget, an average weekly collection of $5,713.00 is needed. Thank you so much!

Haiti Relief

Hurricane Matthew, a powerful category 4 storm, made landfall on Haiti early Tuesday, October 4, 2016. With as many as 900 killed and tens of thousands of homes destroyed in Haiti, the devastation caused by Hurricane Matthew is becoming more clear as officials and aid workers are starting to reach remote areas.

Outside of immediate food, the greatest needs will be shelter, water and hygiene supplies. Along with partners, Catholic Relief Services is now responding in some of the most affected areas in southern Haiti. CRS will distribute blankets, kitchen and hygiene kits and other emergency supplies as needed, as well as monitor potential outbreaks of cholera and other diseases. CRS is distributing hygiene kits, including soap, buckets and toothbrushes, as well as kitchen utensils and blankets.

Your brothers and sisters urgently need your help. Your donation will go directly to help families in Haiti and other countries receive immediate relief. Please donate at www.crs.org or by sending funds directly to Catholic Charities of Spokane, clearly designated for Haiti Relief.

A Word from Father...

Dear Friends:

One of the blessings of having ministered for five years at the WSU Newman Center is that I have quite a few young couples that I got to know there, who are now engaged and have asked me to preside at their weddings. Last summer, I was in Wenatchee for the marriage of Amber and Colin Anyan, who are now living here in Spokane, (Colin is working at an engineering firm downtown and Amber is just beginning her physical therapy training at EWU's Spokane campus). It is wonderful to see them now together at Mass in our own parish community!

On the weekend of November 12th, I will drive down to Pasco for the wedding of Taylor Blanc and Alex Clark at St. Patrick Church. Taylor arrived in Pullman the same year as I did and so we've been "Catholic Cougs" together since then. They've been girlfriend/boyfriend since high school and so their commitment to one another is deep and long-lasting.

In December, I will have two "Coug weddings" to keep me busy. The first is that of Tyson Koepke and his fiancé, Anna Marie Gutierrez. That will take place at the Newman Center chapel in Pullman on December 17th. Tyson finished his PhD at WSU a while back and now heads up a great business in "intelligent agriculture" out of Pullman. Anna Marie works at UI in Moscow.

After Christmas, I will travel to the west side of the state for the wedding of Miles Linde and Anna Samudovsky on December 30th at Holy Family Church in Kirkland. Both Miles and Anna held special roles in our Newman community at WSU; they were my interns for a year each, helping me with just about everything in the place and even more exercising "servant leadership" among the students. Miles is now working on his PhD at Stanford and Anna is doing her first year of teaching nearby as well.

Next summer, I have two more "Coug weddings" scheduled: James Kent and Mary Linker will be married in June at the Cathedral. I've been working with them on their pre-marital preparation since last summer...they got a very early start! And finally, in July, I'll preside at the wedding of Andres Mendoza and Meghan Logan, both former Cougs, and even before that, my young parishioners in Othello. Andres is now working for the Washington State Department of Transportation, while Meghan is studying at GU. Their wedding is tentatively planned for our church, Sacred Heart.

So why the long list of engagements and weddings? Because these young people deeply inspire me with both their LOVE and their FAITH! The combination of the two makes for a secure bond that promises to be wonderfully fruitful and holy for many years to come! Pray for them; they know marriage is seldom easy and they will need our prayerful support in the years ahead!

Fr. Kevin
